

Live Music at Saluda Outfitters and Green River Eddy's Tap Room & Grill

Friday, Sept. 2, 7-10 p.m. | Exit 83 Band is a group of talented upstate musicians performing classic rock, country and originals. Band members are lead singer & guitarist Heath Fowler, lead guitar Darrell Johnson, drummer Jerry Hipp and bass guitar and singer Robert Bowen.

Saturday, Sept. 3, 7-10 p.m. | The JackTown Ramblers are a 4-piece American Bluegrass, Swing & Gypsy Jazz band from the Asheville area of Western North Carolina. The band offers bluegrass, string band, swing and gypsy jazz arrangements all in the same set, which provides an eclectic feel to their music. Musicians are Shannon Leasure, Gabriel Wiseman, Michael Ramsey, & Brett Setzer.

Friday, Sept. 9, 7-10 p.m. | Border Line Therapy is a Landrum based band that performs Rock of Ages with a smattering of country. Expect to hear an eclectic mix of 60s, 70s, 80s, 90s and 2000s rock with some old school country. Band members are Ben Smith, guitar; Brady Caldwell, guitar; Reggie Fowler, vocals; Michael Jackson, drums; & Jason Martin, bass.

Saturday, Sept. 10, 7-10 p.m. | Alex Saunders, & The Big Jay's duo this evening will consist of Saluda singer/songwriter Alex Saunders with professional violinist and award-winning country fiddler Paul McIntire of Asheville.

Friday, Sept. 16, 7-10 p.m. | Dirty South Band was officially founded in 2021 and has since become one of the fastest rising in demand Southern Rock/Country bands in the Carolinas. Band members include BJ Cates of Tryon, lead singer/guitar; Judd Palmer of Columbus, bass; Jadon Pace of Saluda, drums; Bradley Rathburn of Landrum, guitar; and Jonathan Niday of Campobello, guitar. Don't miss these rising stars' debut at Saluda Outfitters' live music venue.

Saturday, Sept. 17, 7-10 p.m. | Road House Rodeo is a band based in Lake Bowen, S.C., that plays a variety of country, rock & blues. Members include Travis Scruggs, lead guitar & vocals; David Scruggs, lead guitar; Dennis Bossler, bass & vocals; and Harvey Swanson, drums & lead vocals. This is the band's debut at Saluda Outfitters' live music venue.

Friday, Sept. 23, 7-10 p.m. | Seth & Sara are a local and talented duo who have just returned to their WNC home from touring the country, sharing their music at venues in almost every state. The evening will include some rock, pop, country songs mixed with some originals written by Americana songwriter Seth, who is winner of three Indi.com original songwriter awards.

Saturday, Sept. 24, 7-10 p.m. | Bruised Rhino of Shelby plays an eclectic mix of Americana/blues/soul. Members are Cornelius Logan on drums/vocals; Pedro Friginals on guitar/vocals; Randy Mach on guitar/mandolin/vocals; Mike Clapood on bass and Joe Hindsley on harmonica/vocals.

Friday, Sept. 30, 7-10 p.m. | Alex Saunders, & The Big Jay's duo this evening will consist of Saluda singer/songwriter Alex Saunders with a talented Asheville musician and vocalist whose performing name is Country.

435 E. Main St., Saluda, NC